

Lecture Notes 1400 - 1754

Last Updated Thursday, 31 July 2014

- Lecture Notes for Students (1400-1754) -- Free! (NOW AVAILABLE)

- Unit 1: Contact (Redesign)

- Unit 2.1: Southern Colonies (Redesign)

- Unit 2.2: New England Colonies (Redesign)

- Unit 2.3: Middle Colonies (Redesign)

- Unit 2.4: 18th-Century Colonies (Redesign)

- Lecture Notes for Students (1754-2014) -- [Log in] (NOW AVAILABLE)

(To Purchase Notes, Click Here)

- Lecture Notes for Teachers (To Purchase Notes, Click Here) -- [Log in]

- Unit 1: Contact (free sample for teachers) (NOW AVAILABLE)

- Testimonials

- Features for the new APUSH Redesign Lecture Notes for TEACHERS 2014-2015 (NOW AVAILABLE):

- Notes are updated to correlate with the new Curriculum Framework Redesign with clear citations and tips provided!

- List of "need-to-know" terms accompanies each sub-unit!

- All notes are available in both Word and PDF formats!

- Memory aids help students remember vital information!

- Updated Essay Questions in each unit help prepare for unit exams and the AP Exam!!

- Over 400 pages of concise, easy-to-use, and easy-to-print information specifically designed to help students succeed on the AP exam!!

- Features for the new APUSH Redesign Lecture Notes for STUDENTS 2014-2015 (COMING IN LATE JULY):

- Notes are updated to correlate to the new Curriculum Framework Redesign (citations not provided)

- List of "need-to-know" terms accompanies each sub-unit!

- All notes in PDF formats
- Memory aids help students remember vital information
- Updated Essay Questions in each sub-unit help prepare students for unit exams and the AP Exam
- Over 400 pages of concise, easy-to-use, and easy-to-print information specifically designed to help students succeed on the AP exam